

www.cyfernet.org

Are you a professional working with children, youth and families?

Then you know that finding high quality, research-based information on the web is a challenge.

Let CYFERnet save you time!

Think of CYFERnet as a “national network of expertise” at your fingertips – as a one-stop clearinghouse for the information you needed yesterday!

CYFERnet brings together the best children, youth and family resources from all the land-grant universities in the country.

Go to CYFERnet for:

- Practical research-based program materials, curricula and activities
- Evaluation tools, instruments and resources
- Fact sheets, newsletters, news releases and PSA's
- Grantwriting tips and links to funding opportunities
- Literature reviews and research briefs
- Research, statistical, and demographic information
- Professional development resources and opportunities
- Subject matter experts at the nation's leading universities
- Train-the-trainer materials
- Video and multi-media resources

Increasingly, CYFERnet is being recognized for its high quality resources. Materials are screened, peer reviewed and posted on CYFERnet by CYFERnet's Editorial Boards. The members of CYFERnet's Editorial Boards are among the country's leading children, youth and families professionals. CYFERnet received a 5-star rating from Tufts University Child & Family WebGuide.

CYFERnet's powerful search engine will help you find the resources you need to do your job more efficiently.

- Find the resources you need!
- Take part in online trainings without ever leaving your office.
- Let CYFERnet save you time!

