

An example of operationalizing the School Age Guiding Principles

1. Physical and Psychological Safety

2. Appropriate Structure

The program encourages developmentally limit setting, clear and consistent rules and expectations, firm-enough control, continuity and predictability, clear boundaries and age appropriate monitoring.

3. Supportive Relationships
4. Opportunities to Belong
5. Positive Social Norms
6. Support for Efficacy and Matterng
7. Opportunities for Skill Building

The program will consult youth, parents, volunteers, educators, facility managers and staff to design and implement clear, concise, enforceable positive behavior guidelines and boundaries enabling youth to buy in and benefit from a consistent and fair environment.

The program will maintain a sufficient qualified staff ratio to enforce guidelines, utilizing facilities in a way that is conducive to learning for the age group. Educators will ensure that all participants are aware of program expectations, boundaries, restrooms, drinking fountains, emergency exits and escape plans.

- ◆ The program will consult youth, parents, volunteers, educators, facility managers and staff to design and implement clear, concise, enforceable positive behavior guidelines and boundaries at the program enabling youth to buy in and benefit from a consistent and fair environment.
- ◆ The program will maintain a sufficient qualified staff ratio to enforce the agreed upon guidelines, utilizing facilities and spaces in a way that is conducive to learning for the age group they are supervising.
- ◆ Educators will ensure that all participants are aware of program expectations, boundaries, restrooms, drinking fountains, emergency exits and escape plans.

Afterschool Site Map

